

Reasonable Suspicion Drug and Alcohol Supervisor Training

November 27, 2018 – 1 to 4 PM

Courtyard by Marriott State College

1730 University Drive, State College, PA 16801

This course is designed to satisfy DOT/FTA Part 655 compliance with training requirements for Reasonable Suspicion Drug and Alcohol Awareness. This training course will cover alcohol and substance abuse, addiction and on-the-job indicators, commonly abused substances and their signs and symptoms, DOT rules and regulations, supervisor roles and responsibilities, and a discussion of several reasonable suspicion scenarios. It is designed for front line supervisors responsible for making reasonable suspicion drug/alcohol testing referrals of employees who perform safety-sensitive functions for transit agencies.

Presented by: Jeff Petrunak, Daecher Consulting

Cost: $49. PPTA cancellation policy applies.

Lodging: No room block has been established for this course, as the 1 PM start time should accommodate commuting from any area of the state. If overnight lodging is needed, the Courtyard by Marriott offers rooms at the government rate of $101/night plus tax.

Parking: Free, on-site parking is available at the Courtyard by Marriott.

Meals: Assorted beverages will be provided. All meals are on your own.

Attire: Casual. Because it can be a challenge to keep the meeting room at a temperature that accommodates everyone, we recommend bringing a sweater or jacket to stay comfortable.
